Book Project BINGO

Clearly mark your project selection sheet. The game is BINGO:

- Select five in a row across, down, or diagonally
- MARK A FREE SPACE anywhere on your line
- Complete the other four projects on that line and submit your work
- You can choose not to win BINGO—but you must choose 5 projects

PROJECT INFORMATION and SCORING

DIRECTIONS. HIGHLIGHT, CIRCLE, or otherwise MARK your selections. Complete the projects by the deadline, following requirements on the back of this page and any examples modeled in class notebook assignments. Clearly mark your FREE SPACE. Each project space is worth 25 points, or 20 points if you choose a scatter of 5 projects. Your projects will be evaluated based on the following criteria:

Analysis Projects (7-10 sentence paragraph for each) should provide two or more details from the novel and provide two or more insights about main characters, setting, conflict, or theme. The book review will contain details about the plot and any other elements worth noting in the review, and must clearly evaluate the novel. Several of these paragraphs will be drafted as part of daily work or homework during the unit.

Connection Projects (7-10 sentence paragraph for each) will connect your novel to another specific novel or author you have read. They must provide one or more details from both novels or authors you are comparing. Some of these paragraphs will be drafted as part of daily work or homework during the unit.

Visual Information (Infographic) Projects (standard 8.5" x 11" sheet of paper) should be neat final drafts that are rich with visual and text details, easy to understand, and colorfully presented. They can be hand-drawn or created on a computer. All infographic choices will be drafted as part of daily work or homework during the unit.

Creative Projects (standard 8.5" x 11" sheet of paper) will involve artwork or creative writing. They should demonstrate imagination, careful attention to detail, and a clear, thoughtful connection to the novel. The poem should be 15 or more lines long. The scene should be at least one page long and feature a different narrator/protagonist chosen from the characters in the story. The symbol and setting illustrations should include a 3-sentence caption explaining the artwork. Some creative choices will be optional daily assignments or homework during the unit.

Media Projects will involve video, music, or presentation software. The video projects should be well-crafted, carefully edited, and easily viewable in school. It is recommended that you draft a script and/or draw a storyboard in your notebook first. The mood trailer must clearly express variations in levels of emotion present in the novel. The suspense trailer must clearly express multiple elements of suspense that are part of the story. The music playlist must have at least 5 songs that convey themes in the novel. Either songs or lyrics can be submitted, along with written statements identifying the title and artist of each song and explaining each selection. The Prezi presentation will be demonstrated in class and must show a timeline of 10 or more key story events.

Two options for fulfilling project:

- Choose FOUR IN A ROW plus a FREE SPACE, with projects worth 25 POINTS EACH (25 x 4 = 100)
- Choose ANY FIVE projects on the board, with projects worth 20 POINTS EACH (20 x 5 = 100)

Regarding your notebook work for this unit: You will be drafting some of these project choices in your notebook as daily assignments or homework while you read. In the end, you will choose which assignments show the best promise as projects, or which assignments are most enjoyable for you.

Project submission checklist:

- All submitted work will be printed/completed on standard white printer paper.
- STAPLE THIS PAGE to the back of your projects
- Make sure your name is on each project
- Any media project can be submitted by working links in an email or on a USB

Thanks for playing!
